The dates for the 2017-2018 Department of Teaching and Learning Doctoral Student Colloquia are listed below. All colloquia will be held Fridays from 5-7 p.m. in the Bennett Professional Development Center (BDC).

Our theme for the 2017-2018 colloquia is focused on relationship building: “You Are My Other Self.” As you make your plans to attend the colloquia, invite a doctoral student and/or faculty colleague to attend with you. Together, commit to work together to ensure each other’s personal, academic, and professional success over the coming year, as well as to supporting other colleagues’ parallel commitments. In this way we will continue our efforts to realize a community of scholar practitioners/practitioner scholars dedicated to solving educational inequities through fidelity to educational excellence.

PLEASE JOIN WITH US IN THIS EFFORT!
